WEST HENDON REGENERATION

PERRYFIELD WAY AND WARNER CLOSE CAR PARKS

PERRYFIELD WAY CAR PARK CLOSURE

Dear car park user

We wish to provide you with a further update on the changes being made to car parking on the West Hendon Estate.

As you know, the Warner Close car park improvement work is now complete and the much-improved car park is now open. The Warner Close car park provides for existing resident permit holders and also accommodates any displaced business and public user spaces who used the Perryfield Way car park.

The Perryfield Way Business Users car park is now closed but permit holders are currently able to park in the Perryfield Way public car park or the refurbished Warner Close car park.

However, we are writing to you today to confirm that:

- The Perryfield Way public car park will be closing to ALL users at 5pm on 4th July
- ALL existing Perryfield Way car park users will be required to use the Warner Close car park from 5pm on 4th July
- In order to protect the Perryfield Way car park, which is owned by the London Borough of Barnet, a hoarding will be erected around the site from 8am on 5th July

Full details of the refurbishment work can be found overleaf.

Should you require any further details then please contact us.

Kind regards

Barratt Metropolitan

The improvements are as follows:

- Demolition of upper deck and structural repairs
- New balustrades to protect against falls
- New lighting to the car park (to be installed early July)
- New surfacing
- Access improvements between Warner Close car park and West Hendon Broadway, including tarmac repairs and dropped kerbs
- New white-lining to car parking spaces and signage
- Cleaning of all drainage to clear blockages
- New footway from the car parks to the flats
- Two disabled parking bays

In order to provide continued pedestrian access for residents and shops backing on to the Perryfield Way car park, access will be maintained on the Telford Road.

The green areas ( ) show retained pedestrian access to properties on West Hendon Broadway.
